

Angela Dunleavy-Stowell, CEO, FareStart

Angela Dunleavy-Stowell is CEO at FareStart, a James Beard Award-winning nonprofit organization that transforms lives, disrupts poverty and nourishes communities through food, life skills and job training. FareStart provides hands on training to students through its social enterprise cafes, restaurants and catering operations and provides over 900,000 meals to the Greater Seattle community each year.

Since 1992, FareStart has offered life-changing human services to nearly 11,000 adults and youth while serving over 12.5 million meals to Seattle area schools, homeless shelters and healthcare facilities. FareStart works to end poverty, homelessness and joblessness in communities across North America through its consulting and membership services.

Prior to her role at FareStart, Angela was co-founder and CEO of Ethan Stowell Restaurants, a Seattle-based hospitality group that grew to 16 locations under her tenure. In 2013, Angela was named one of Puget Sound Business Journal's "40 Under 40." She and Ethan Stowell received the 2016 Richard Melman Innovator of the Year Award. She has been honored as one of Puget Sound Business Journal's 2017 "Women of Influence" and was named one of the "50 Most Influential Women in Seattle" by Seattle Met Magazine. In 2018 Puget Sound Business Journal named Angela to their "40 Under 40" Hall of Fame.

Angela is on the Board of Directors for United Way of King County, the Seattle-King County Workforce Development Council, the Downtown Seattle Association and the Seattle Metropolitan Chamber of Commerce.
