Deliver Meals To Students & Graduates

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, FareStart has pivoted our job training programs to a virtual format. Despite not seeing students in person, we still strive to provide as much wrap around supports as possible so they can focus on their coursework.

Impact: Volunteer delivery drivers are critical to ensuring that FareStart students and graduates receive their meals while they complete remote programming.

Volunteer Duties: Pickup meals in Seattle and deliver to students along a pre-determined route. Volunteers will text/call students when they are on their way. There are 3 delivery routes, each with about 1 hour of driving time.

Route 1: Start in Seattle and drive north towards Shoreline and Bothell

Route 2: Start in Seattle and drive south towards Highline

Route 3: Start in Seattle and drive south towards Renton
